Entered at the Postoffice in Washington as sec ad class matter. Saturday, Sept. 23, 1882.

DAKOTA and Arizona newspapers are on tiptoe and yelling like Apaches for the extermination of the energetic Indians of their respective localities. The newspaper boys should be given a chance if they want to demonstrate their good marksmanship.

Collier, Emma 8, Carr, Gertrude Campbell, Lucy Chamberlin, Maud Crummels, 8, Davis, Clara L. Desvenney, Glara Diggs, Ellen Daniels, Mary C. Ertine, C. A. Mrs. Elliott, Rosa Poster, Annie Ford, Carrie FROM the very bowels of Montana Territory comes a cry against the recognition of Dr. Mary Walker in the Interior Department. The Inter-Mountain mildly terms her an "intractable female," but suggests that "if she could only have been induced to join Arabi Pasha's forces before his defeat, the British never would have ventured near his works at Kassassin. That's tough, so it is; very tough. r, Ellen , Martha Ellen rd, Alico WHY IS IT necessary for Mr. Brewster

Calmeron, the "jury fixer," and Mr. F. H. Fall, one of his aids in the same business, to keen themselves housed up since Mr. Cameron's arrival in the city? It can't be possible that they are manufacturing testipossible tracting are manufacturing testi-mony by attempting to "fix" witnesses! Oh, no! they are too pure for that; then you know there is no necessity for them to make any effort to extricate themselves from the charges of Jurymen Dickson and Holmead—these two jurymen are not known as well, perhaps, in this community as Brewster Cameron is in Texas, or, if they are, they are known differently, because the Austin (Texas) Dispatch avers that there are not twelve men in Texas who would believe Browster Cameron under oath !

SEVERAL philanthropists and other individuals, who are constantly borrowing trouble by looking after the welfare of the generations unborn, are growing alarmed lest the American forests are destroyed and we are left without woodlands. Professor Charles S. Sargent, of Harvard University, recommends the passage of State laws pro-hibiting the pasturage of cattle in forests and also "compelling the logger, under the penalty of fine, or even imprisonment, to carefully collect and burn during the win-ter in which the trees are cut every part of them not carried away." This may be considered the inconsistent keynote of the fellows who clamor for the life of our forests. It is presumed the farmer will continue to chop down at will his hickories and sturdy oaks long after we dwell in the Grier, C. E. JOURNALISM is Arkausas is an exciting and uncertain vocation. Yesterday Charles Matthews, editor of the Hornet, at Hot Springs, Ark., was shot and killed in an with two of the most prominent citizens of that valley of vapors, Colonel Fordyce, a leading capitalist, and Colonel Rugg, one of the proprietors of the Arlington, the leading hotel of the place. The fight grew out of Matthews' violent newspaperarticles. The deceased editor had led an eventful life. As a reporter at Austin, Tex., he was expelled from the halls of the Legislature. Later he was acting as bar-keeper in a saloon kept by a man named Wil-Jones, Frank G.

A few years ago he established the Sestinel at Hot Springs. He speedily got into a newspaper row with Dr. Linde, then Mayor, in which he was desperately wounded and lay at death's door for months. Now he has fallen, a victim to his violent and vindictive method of journalism. His taking off should be a warning to certain journalists hereabouts!

The N. Y. Ass. Press and Jay Gould. The New York Herald breaks out into lamentations this morning. It uses up a column and a half of its alleged elitorial space in howling forth objurgations at Jay Gould because that enterprising gentleman has pocketed the New York Associated Press. This association is an organization of seven New York papers for the supposed purpose of gathering the news nd giving it to the public without prejudice or bias. These seven papers are the New York Herald, Tribune, Times, Sun, World, Journal of Commerce and Mail and Express. Jay Gould, the Herald asserts, pocketed the Tribune, the World, and the Mail and Express some time ago and, having the control of the Western Union Telegraph, proposed to consolidate the N. Y. Ass. Press with it and run both institutions for his own glory and profit. This scheme, the Herald goes on to say, has been made successful by the San's going over to Gould.

For the life of us we fail to see the neces sity for all this shricking on the part of the Herald. Suppose Jay Gould has put the N. Y. Ass. Press deep down in his pistol pocket, what of it? Who is it going to hurt? Who will be deceived by the news it sends out? Certainly no intelligent, discerning

The fact is that the N. Y. Ass. Press has long ceased to be either a reliable or an energetic gatherer of news; and the pretense that it serves out its news without coloring and has never been used for partisan or private purposes is as false as hell and as malicious as sin. The N. Y. Ass. Press has been used time and time again to promote personal schemes and to injure private as well as official persons. To pretend the contrary is as foolish as it is false, and can deceive no one who has been in the habit of reading the telegraphic news critically.

No ; Jay Gould's gobbling up the N. 'Y. Ass. Press will neither injure nor deceive any one. That association has outlived its usefulness, and is every day distanced by its young and enterprising competitor, the United Press Association, which sends out trustworthy and unbiased news. To compare the work of the two associations, take the account of the great railway disaster at New York city yesterday as furnished THE CRITIC by the United Press Association and that furnished the Star by the N.

That in THE CRITIC was full, complete and accurate; that in the Star was meager, disjointed and almost worthless. Readers who want all the news must therefore take THE CRITIC.

The Herald's furious squealing is, under the circumstances, more calculated to create amusement than indignation.
